

Connecticut Hall Of Change

Award Nomination Form

Deadline for submission: 5 pm EST, June 2nd, 2023

(Nominations received after this deadline will not be considered)

Please fill the form out to completion in order to be considered

Submission of this form will serve as a nomination to the Connecticut Hall of Change (CTHOC). Those chosen to be inducted into the CTHOC will have their accomplishments recognized and memorialized in public ceremonies in 2023. Formerly incarcerated persons (in either Connecticut state or federal systems) who are residing in the state of Connecticut are eligible to be nominated for this award according to the guidelines listed below.

The CTHOC Nominating Committee, comprised of reentry professionals from across the state, will review all nominations received by the stated deadline of JUNE 2nd, 2023, and will notify candidates of their provisional selection by JUNE 22nd, 2023. These candidates will be inducted into the CTHOC in a public ceremony in SEPTEMBER 9th, 2023 after a probationary period during which each candidate shall participate in two (2) of several scheduled public speaking engagements. Upon completion of this requirement, the Nominating Committee will offer successful candidates an invitation to be inducted into the CTHOC "Great Eight" Initiative.

*Please note the following:

Qualifications for CTHOC Nominees:

Nominees shall:

- Be a current resident of the state of Connecticut
- Have served a sentence of incarceration in a CT DOC facility, or in a federal facility for offenses committed in Connecticut
- Have been discharged from all correctional supervision including CT state or federal parole and probation for a minimum of five (5) years, and have no new charges pending

Nominations shall be disqualified in the event of:

- Self-nomination
- Incomplete, inaccurate, or unverifiable information on nominating form
- Inability to participate in public speaking engagements as specified during probationary period
- Current resident outside of Connecticut

Awardees will be notified by US Mail and Email by JUNE 22nd, 2023.
